SURE! I will look in to a ticket today!
All is very well here...looking forward to true summer soon! Still not hot enough for me yet!
Hope you are well and enjoying life too! Lesley

Hi dear Lesley,
I hope you are doing well and find at least a little time in your busy schedule for enjoying the summer:)
I'm sorry to bother you as I'm sure you have lots of work but Jeffrey asked me to get in touch with you for buying a flight ticket for me to NY this July.
The ideal dates would be flying out on July 22nd and returning on August 12 or 13th. As [REDACTED] airport will be closed for reconstruction works this summer, I will have to depart from and return to [REDACTED] airport.

Thank you so much and once again sorry for bothering you with this!
