Hi Lesley!
Thank you for letting me know,
Unfortunately, I'm working tomorrow from 3PM to 5PM and will not be able to come at 3.30PM. Let me know if we can somehow make it work at a different time.
Thank you.

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for getting back to me,

I have contacted my friend via her cell phone number and she said she can come in anytime on Friday. I will be glad to assist her in getting to Jeffrey's house and wait in the waiting room for convenience. Let me know if that's okay, if not, I'll get in touch with her regarding her contact information and further directions.

Thank you,

Hi [REDACTED]. I would like to help coordinate your friend who is interested in an assistant position...would you like to send me her email address and I can coordinate directly? Jeffrey will be in NY this Thursday and Friday...hoping she would have time one of these days...

Hope you are well.
