CHECK-IN TIMES

For domestic travel, customers traveling with checked baggage must obtain a boarding pass and check their baggage no less than forty (40) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to the scheduled or posted departure time. Customers traveling without checked baggage must obtain a boarding pass no less than thirty (30) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to scheduled or posted departure time. For international travel, all customers must obtain a boarding pass and check their baggage no less than sixty (60) minutes prior to scheduled departure and be onboard the aircraft no less than fifteen (15) minutes prior to the scheduled or posted departure time.

DOCUMENTATION REQUIREMENTS

For domestic travel, customers over the age of 18 must present government-issued photo identification that includes a tamper resistant feature, name, date of birth, gender, and expiration date. Documents required for international travel vary according to country of travel, citizenship, residency, age, length of stay, purpose of visit, etc., and customers should contact the embassy or consulate in their destination country for all documentation requirements, including proof of return or onward travel. It is your responsibility to ensure you have the required documentation for travel. JetBlue reserves the right to deny boarding to anyone without proper documentation and is not responsible for any failure by you to have the required documentation for entry into a foreign country or return into the United States.

ADVICE TO DOMESTIC CUSTOMERS ON CARRIER LIABILITY

For travel entirely within the U.S., JetBlue's liability for loss, damage or delay in delivery of baggage is limited to $3,500 per ticketed passenger unless a higher value is declared in advance and additional charges are paid. JetBlue assumes no responsibility for fragile, unsuitably packaged, irreplaceable, essential, or perishable items. Please refer to JetBlue's Contract of Carriage for additional information.

ADVICE TO INTERNATIONAL PASSENGERS ON LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Where a passenger's journey involves an ultimate destination or a stop in a country other than the country of departure, either the Warsaw Convention and the Hague Protocol, their amendments, and any special contracts of carriage embodied in applicable tariffs that waive Warsaw/Hague limits, or the Montreal Convention may apply to the entire journey including the portion within the countries of departure or destination and, in some cases, may limit the liability of the carrier for death or personal injury, delay, and for loss of or damage to baggage. The Montreal Convention, where applicable, does not impose, and special contracts voluntarily entered into by many carriers, including JetBlue, waive, the Warsaw/Hague limitations for compensatory damages arising out of personal injury or wrongful death caused by an accident, as defined by the applicable treaty. The names of carriers party to the special contracts are available at all ticket offices of such carriers and may be examined upon request.

NOTICE OF OVERBOOKING OF FLIGHTS

While JetBlue does not intentionally overbook its flights, there is still a slight chance that a seat will not be available on a flight for which a person has a confirmed reservation. If the flight is overbooked, no one will be denied a seat until airline personnel first ask for volunteers willing to give up their reservation in exchange for a payment of the airline's choosing. If there are not enough volunteers, JetBlue will deny boarding to other persons in accordance with its particular boarding priority. With few exceptions, including failure to comply with JetBlue's check-in deadlines, persons denied boarding involuntarily are entitled to compensation. Please refer to JetBlue's Contract of Carriage for the complete rules for the payment of compensation and JetBlue's boarding priorities. Some airlines do not apply these consumer protections to travel from some foreign countries, although other consumer protections may be available. Check with your airline or your travel agent.
