iCloud storage doesn't have anything to do with your email or google drive, tho.
Gmail accounts have a 15GB limit by themselves, unless you upgrade them and your email account HAS to be using more than that — the 100GB limit is $1.99/mo

Check <https://www.google.com/settings/storage> for your current storage settings

I pay $2.99 a month for extra iCloud storage...200 GB.
Bella, I have no idea what the Google Play is for...

No idea. I believe Google Play covers all sorts of Google service charges & android store purchases.
Do you have expanded storage for your email/google drive?

Hi James...every month we are charged $1.99 for "Google Play"...the invoice comes to me...is this something I need? I am not sure why I have it... Or is it for JE subscription? Might you know...?
