Soon Yi says to keep it simple and not too much food tonight (as she has been eating all day)...she will take "fish or Japanese food and a salad and Woody, since he doesn't eat meat, will have pasta or fish, veggies...or chicken"

I put that in quotes because I was typing as she was giving the instruction. She did reiterate not too much food (no "schmorgishboard tonight") below is the text she just sent:

Sorry I didn't text you earlier. I just got your message. I'm on my way back into the city. You won't believe it but not too much food as I was at my friends house and I've been eating all day.

Hope that helps!
