Greetings Boscoe,

Yes, worse than Marilyn. Have not heard from anyone since yesterday morning. I and my husband are well thank God.

There is a curfew until tonight at 6 pm, but most of the roads are blocked anyway so no one is moving.

Good Morning.

To those who can, please respond and let me know you are ok??

Any information would be helpful.

I AM concerned about you all and have real concerns about Carlos and Danny at LSJ
I HOPE the sat phone still works...!!

Can't get Karl.

I stayed in contact with a friend in bovoni storage through the first half of the storm. It's likely a wipeout equal or worse than Hugo or Marylin.

Bless You All.
