I called United Healthcare and was told it depends on the benefits...he did some routine stuff (flu shot for instance) but he went to an out of network doctor so it is just not covered... Had he gone to an in network doctor, the flu shot, would have been covered...she said it really depends on each benefit...the money we paid does not go toward deductible either...
The gal I spoke with searched and hoped she could find something covered even though out of network, but could not.

FYI-I was told by Cece at Dr. Orsher's office they do not have the forms our insurance requests because Dr. Orsher is out of network...therefore, we can not submit Dr. Orsher invoices for reimbursement...
