Hi Robert...I know you have plans with mom tomorrow...however, wondering if we can change your appointment with Jeffrey...he is asking if you could come see him at 2pm? It that won't work, maybe

Great!

Actually.... the real story is that I'm meeting with the full hospice team - hospice rules are a maximum of six months of life to qualify for medicare payments for their excellent care - qualifications are their responsibility. Mom is now approaching two years on hospice and going strong, causing them 'problems'. Their thrilled, of course, but can't decide if she has to 'graduate' and loose the excellent care or they can continue to try to justify, which we all want, since the care is very good.

Hi Leslie:

4:30 pm, Wed, Nov. 29, should work. I meet with my mom's caregivers earlier - she will be 102 in May! - but I should arrive by 4:30 pm - how about 4:45 to be safe?

Thanks and best,

Robert
