Hi [REDACTED],

I was trying to print a label, but can't use your location as a shipper on our account. I went online to the link below to help you with a label, but need product description.. The easiest is to go to fedex location and send it using Jeffrey fedex account number [REDACTED] (Recipient) for payment or try the link below. Please feel free to call me with any questions

Thank you,
Bella

Dear Bella,
I will be sending a package tomorrow, because apparently they don't work during Christmas... :D
Size: 60cm *60cm *10cm
Weight: 3kg
Value: 20 eur (I will include myself an invoice that it is not bought and has no commercial value)

Dear Bella,

I am writing in regard to the fedex account, It would be really nice of you if you could send me again the papers (most probably on Monday). I will be sending a Christmas gift for Jeffrey, he said I can use his fedex account to pay for the delivery. I am letting you know upfront, I will know the details about the delivery only tomorrow or on Monday.

And...

I wish you merry Christmas!!!

While you enjoy the gifts,
food, sparkle of ornaments and lights,
feasting on favorite foods,
I wish this Christmas
would envelop you
in the special warmth
and rich contentment
the season brings.

I wish friends, family,
all those who love you
let you know how much they care,
so that you feel happily wrapped in their affection.

I wish this Christmas
would be one you never forget,

a shining beacon in your memory
to light all of your days.
