As a quick note, I pulled together the lifts, lesson and rentals based on convenience and price. The first day of lessons is less pricey than the next days. Sort of a perk for day one. So I chose the Magic package so both girls could be together. This package included lifts, lessons and rentals.

For Day two – the girls will be split up. They do not have both ski and snowboard instruction together. I chose to separate also the lifts and rentals for both price and convenience. They may feel free to 'pick up' their rentals the first day after their lesson and keep them for the remainder of the trip. Versus arriving on day two and picking up rentals with lessons. And then again on Day 3 picking them up once again for the remaining two days. It would be very inconvenient.

Further, they do not offer lifts and lessons, or rentals and lesson, only the full lifts, lessons and rentals combo. So this is why on Day One we took advantage of the special pricing, and then separated activities from that point on for both convenience and price.

Hope this makes sense.

Thanks, Emma

Can you send me the ONE QUOTE only for Snowmass Villas at Snowmass Club, in a brand new email, so I can forward and he can see just the one option? That would be super!
