Hi [REDACTED]

As I know he is good with ham and cheese,
Chicken..

It's all food that he will take a bite of and won't really eat and enjoy himself..

Sushi..he doesn't like anything in particular..we never order it for him..

But he might take a piece of salmon avocado, tuna, yellowtail..

He could enjoy cookies..

Coffe americano with sweet and low and half and half

Morning [REDACTED] Can you give me a small list of sushi jeffrey likes and small sandwiches he eats? He is going to a meeting on Monday and the organizers are asking me what food he likes so they can have a few things for him. They asked about drinks also. I said coffee, sparkling water and regular water. Please let me know! Thanks. [REDACTED]
