HI [REDACTED]..I am told flights are going as scheduled and American Airlines requests you keep your schedule as is unless you wanted to change the date of your travel. I figure you and [REDACTED] want to leave tomorrow. Hoping all goes just fine with your flights...if you are delayed there is another flight out of Chicago to Aspen at 2:50pm (AA#3013) I am told it is wide open. ..then after that they have a flight to Denver later in the day (that would be worst case) and you would have to take a shuttle to Aspen/Snowmass. I tried to see if you could fly through some other airport but no flights were available directly to Aspen...American Airlines and Amex both encouraged me to keep your schedule as is ...If you get to the airport in Chicago and need to change to the 2:50pm flight (AA#3013) you will just need to talk to an agent at the ticket counter...they will be able to help you! Weather says 'snow showers' in Chicago...the airlines are used to this and can accommodate. I was also told the alert you received is sent out automatically to see if people will change their day of travel...

Take care, Lesley

Lesley, I'm so sorry for disturbing you so late. But can you please help me to figure out about tomorrow flight. There are snow storm in Chicago. And by now I see this through the AA link(photos attached)... should we change the flight or it's scheduled and all good... ?

I just have never faced this before...
again, very sorry to disturb you.

Looking forward for your answer
Thank you!!!
