

To: Lesley Groff [REDACTED]
From: [REDACTED]
Sent: Tue 2/6/2018 6:54:27 PM
Subject: Re: Your Input is Needed!

Hi Lesley! I think Snowmass would be the best location. I don't know how to ski, so in my case ski lesson with helmet would be the best. [REDACTED] would like to try both (ski and snowboard). Also, I guess Jeffrey has changed the dates and we will go on Thursday to NY, and on Saturday to Aspen...

Thank you Lesley for your help!!!

Sent from my iPhone

On Feb 6, 2018, at 12:36 PM, Lesley Groff <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Please see below and let me know your thoughts as soon as possible...

Aspen the town – or Snowmass? Snowmass is the major 'Aspen ski resort' – Aspen is the town. Snowmass is about 20 minutes away on convenient shuttle. With more ski in and out options. Most stay at Snowmass, then go to Aspen for shopping and dining. The ski hill in Aspen is smaller and steeper. If they are expert to intermediate skiers and are familiar with this type of terrain, then Aspen might be perfect. Otherwise I might recommend Snowmass.

Lift ticket passes work for both Aspen, Snowmass and the two smaller hills in-between called Highlands and Buttermilk. But Snowmass is by far the larger ski area base with three village levels of shopping and dining.

Rentals can be picked up at a conveniently located shop or delivered at the lodge. Skiers or snowboarders? Helmets or no helmets?

Transportation from the airport is included in most Snowmass packages, but not Aspen. For Aspen we arrange for a round trip shuttle/taxi.