I have submitted the claim (dent in roof, car giving you lots of alerts-need to know what they are if you can-smelling, not working/running) They have attached this claim to the windshield claim, but we have to wait for a call from the auto adjuster. They are to call me tomorrow. They are the ones who can sign off on the rental car again...you will need a ride to work or to take an Uber? What a pain....so sorry! I will stay on top of it.
