Ty was super tired again last night. We went up at 9:45pm. By 9:57pm he was almost out. He showered and did all I asked of him after practice. He wanted to play Fortnite but I said no and he didn't argue. Love him. Let's be you too. Didn't see you much! Glad you had fun at basketball and played well. Bed late and up early. Glad you don't require a lot of sleep! Hope you have another busy day. I'm taking 9:35am from NC to city. Have to switch trains in Stamford.
