Dear Lesley,

Hope you are doing good and everything is going as planned and wonderful! :) I talked to Jeffrey and he said that I could get some materials from some of his assistants that have studied the paramedic courses, maybe you have any? Maybe you know where they usually do these trainings because in EU they usually ask previous experience in medicine.

Would really appreciate that! Thank you :)) Also any other of your suggestions of what could be useful to learn I would really appreciate since you know Jeffrey the best. He gave me some tips, but always better to plan already more for the future.

Still looking forward to meet you in person some day!

ps. I previously asked you about the swimming suits, I had to go to work and had no time to think about it. but I really appreciate you offer to suggest something. You are amazing. <3

Love
