Dear Mr. Jeffrey Epstein

Magnolia Pictures has just released the latest Alex Gibney, financially-explosive documentary The China Hustle. You will know Gibney's work from his Oscar-nominated Enron: The Smartest Guys in the Room.

In The China Hustle, Gibney exposes a massive fraud involving the Chinese and American stock markets, which resulted in a colossal financial crime effecting global economic stability. The film is a prequel to today's Chinese trade wars.

I would like to send you a computer link to this hour and twenty-minute fascinating film via email.

If you prefer to host your own private friends and family screening in your own media room, Magnolia Pictures will send a Blu-Ray. We will help you facilitate the invitations.

The China Hustle, which has already been called "THE "MOST IMPORTANT MOVIE OF 2018" by Forbes Magazine, follows investors seeking new alternatives in the global markets who think they have found a goldmine in China, that is until one investor uncovers an intricate web of fraud.

The film, from writer/director Jed Rothstein, executive producer Alex Gibney (Oscar winner for Taxi to the Dark Side), and executive producer Stacey Offman, forces everything in our increasingly deregulated financial world to be called into question.

Links will be sent shortly. If you have a preferred email address, please let me know ASAP.

xoxo,
Peggy

P.S. I have enclosed just a few of the many astute reviews:
