Subject: THANK YOU!!

Hi [REDACTED]! I am just today at Jeffrey's house and receiving the sweetest gift ever! I love the sentiment and am quite impressed with Dylan and Sophia's efforts in wood shop (really nicely made spoons!) but also their endeavors to raise the money to pay for their plane tickets themselves! What a great experience for them (and you) all around.

Very sweet of you to think of me and pass along the 'story' and the gift...I will use the spoons tonight to serve my salad ;)

...and of course pass along the great story to my son!@

Glad y'all had a great time while here.

Take care, [REDACTED]
