Rail Protection Plan™

General Conditions for an Exchange under the Rail Protection Plan

- Rail passes, train tickets, reservations, and city passes/tours may be exchanged for the same or different products. Gift Cards.
- The value of the original product will be applied to the new booking. Travelers who have not yet determined the value of their tickets are not available yet for purchase, will be issued a coupon code equal to the value of the exchanged product for a new booking at a later date.
- Travelers are responsible to pay the difference in price between the exchanged product(s) and the new product. If the new product is lower than the original product, the difference will not be refunded nor will a credit/coupon code be issued.
- Coupon Codes are issued in the name of the traveler(s) given at the time of the original booking and are valid for 2 years from the issue date.
- Coupon Codes issued for an exchanged product must be redeemed on a new booking no later than 1 year from the issue date on the coupon code. No refund will be issued in cases where the full value of the coupon code is not used.
- No explanation is required for exchange requests on the product(s).
- Rail Protection Plan has no cash value. Travelers who use their RPP Exchange benefit and then cancel will be eligible to receive a refund on any cost paid by the traveler that exceeded the value of the original exchanged product. Shipping and handling fees are non-refundable.
- Exchange of Paper Products under RPP : Exchange requests must be received by RENA Customer Service within 3 business days prior to the scheduled departure date to Europe. New product/coupons codes will not be issued until the original documents have been received by RENA. Exchanges on paper products cannot be performed after the traveler has entered Europe. Travelers with paper products leaving for Europe within 3 business days or who are shipping products to Europe, are not eligible to take advantage of the RPP Exchange benefit but may still qualify for the RPP Exchange benefit.
- Exchange of E-tickets (Print at Station/Print at Home) under RPP : Exchange requests must be received by RENA Customer Service three (3) business days prior to the scheduled train departure date. Exchange requests received two (2) business days prior to the scheduled train departure date will not be processed.
- To request an exchange, please call 800-438-RAIL (7245) or (847) 916-1028 .

General Conditions for Cancellation under the Rail Protection Plan

- Travelers will be issued a RENA credit in the form of a coupon code equal to the value of the canceled product for use on a future booking within two (2) years from issue date.
- Coupon Codes are issued in the name of the traveler(s) given at the time of the original booking and are valid for 2 years from the issue date.
- Coupon Codes must be redeemed on a new booking within two (2) years from the issue date on the value of the original product. No refund will be issued in cases where the full value of the coupon code is not used. Any remaining balance shall be applied to the new booking.
- Coupon Codes cannot be applied toward shipping and handling fees or Gift Cards.
- No explanation is required for cancellation requests on product(s), you may cancel with no questions asked.
- Rail Protection Plan has no cash value. Travelers who use their RPP Exchange benefit and then cancel will be eligible to receive a refund on any cost paid by the traveler that exceeded the value of the original exchanged product. Shipping and handling fees are non-refundable.
- Cancellation of Paper Products under RPP : Paper products being returned for a cancellation must be received by RENA Relations department no later than three (3) business days BEFORE the scheduled departure date to Europe or the time of booking, or the train departure / first date of travel for travelers already in Europe.
- Cancellation of E-tickets (Print at Station/Print at Home) under RPP Cancellation requests must be received by RENA Customer Service three (3) business days prior to the scheduled train departure date.

Applying for Reimbursement in the case of a missed train connection Rail Protection Plan™

- If while traveling in Europe, you miss your connecting train trip due to a flight or train delay caused by you, you will be reimbursed the value of the unused connecting train ticket/reservation/travel day. In the case of a rail pass, this provision only applies in the event the entire travel day could not be used due to the missed connection and does not apply in the event the partial use of a travel day.
- Missed Connection Caused by a Flight Delay a. Travelers must provide proof of the delay from the flight. Travelers departing directly from a train station located at the arrival airport must have a minimum connecting time of 45 minutes. Travelers departing from any train station not located at the arrival airport, must have a minimum connecting time of 90 minutes.
- Missed Connection Caused by a Train Delay a. Travelers must provide proof of the delay from the train. Travelers departing in and out of the same train station must have a minimum connecting time of 10 minutes. Travelers departing in and out of different train stations must have a minimum connecting time of 45 minutes.
- Travelers without the minimum connecting time noted above for Flight or Train, will not qualify for Reimbursement.
- Coverage does not apply for missed connections caused by the traveler arriving late for their flight, train, or a flight or train delay.
- Travelers will either be refunded the value of the unused ticket, travel day, reservation due to the missed connection, or a replacement product(s), whichever is less.
- Travelers must purchase a replacement product(s) in order to continue with his/her travel plans to be eligible for reimbursement.
- Within thirty (30) days upon return from Europe, travelers must submit a statement to Rail Europe indicating the reason for the missed connection, replacement product(s) purchased due to the missed connection, and the amount of reimbursement requested.
- To start your request in the case of a missed connection, please contact us at CustomerRelations@raileurope.com

Applying for a Refund in the case of strike under the Rail Protection Plan™

- If while traveling in Europe your trip is interrupted due to a rail strike, you will be reimbursed for the value of the unused ticket/reservation/travel day. In the case of a rail pass, this provision only applies in the event the entire travel day could not be used due to the strike and not in the event the rail strike lasted less than a day.
- Paper Products - the train ticket/rail pass /reservations, must be stamped at the European train station indicating that the train ticket / travel day or reservation could not be used due to a rail strike. City passes are not eligible for reimbursement due to rail strikes. (MT : I do not understand what this is supposed to mean.)
- Requests for Reimbursement due to strikes must begin by filling out the Contact Us form on the Rail Europe website.
- Refund requests due to strikes while traveling in Europe must be received within thirty (30) days of your return from Europe.
- E-tickets (Print at the Station) o Tickets already printed at the station must follow the same procedure as paper products. o If the ticket has not been printed at the station, requests for reimbursement due to strikes must be submitted to CustomerRelations@raileurope.com BEFORE the train departure date.
- E-tickets (Print at Home) - Requests for reimbursement due to strikes must be emailed to CustomerRelations@raileurope.com BEFORE the train departure date.

Applying for Reimbursement in the case of loss or theft under the Rail Protection Plan™

- Travelers' product(s) must have been lost or stolen while traveling in Europe.
- Travelers will either be refunded the value of the unused portion of the lost or stolen paper product(s) or the value of the replacement product(s), whichever is less.
- Product holders must file a police report within twenty-four (24) hours of the incident.
- Travelers must purchase a replacement product(s) in order to continue with his/her travel plans.
- Within thirty (30) days upon return to North America, product holders must submit a statement to RENA detailing the loss or theft of the replacement product(s) purchased abroad, airline tickets from North America to Europe and return, and any other relevant information. If you fail to include any of these items, your claim cannot be processed.
- RPP is not applicable for product(s) lost or stolen BEFORE departing North America.
