Dear [REDACTED]

I hope this email finds you well. Thank you very much for your call to our New York office last week regarding a potential project in the USVI.

I am writing personally to send our regrets for not being able to accept further projects at this moment. We are currently finishing up simultaneous projects in New York and Texas, without bandwidth to travel further or take on more projects at this time. I trust you can understand our position and accept our apologies at this time.

We sincerely hope you will keep us in mind for future opportunities.

With warm regards,
Anna
