Hey!

I just booked an adjoining (double) room using my credit card info, but the rez is under your name as they won't allow you to check-in under a name different from your own.

I'll email the confirmation as soon as I receive it and will provide a doc that allows you to use my credit card number, which is on file.

Thanks so much! Really appreciate it. xx

Sure thing and thank you!!

BTW... [REDACTED] just said that traffic will be terrible on Friday so they'll also leave early Sat morning.

Very happy to help out! we booked hotel stay for Sat. night only at Jake's 58...I think an adjoining room would be super...happy to have [REDACTED] with us and bring him home on Sunday...Below is the website to Jake's 58 and I included our confirmation below that...I thought I could maybe book a 1 bedroom suite and the boys could stay on a pull out sofa, but the suite is one room, just bigger. I think the boys would prefer their own room...can you check it out and see if adjoining is possible?

Hey!

I was on the Tourney Machine site this morning, and this weekend's schedule was posted. Not sure if it's final, but if so, we may need some help with [REDACTED] over the weekend (assuming he plays) as [REDACTED] has his piano recital on Sat (3pm) and his confirmation at church on Sun (9:30am).

I'll probably book a room for [REDACTED] on Friday night, but [REDACTED] would need to leave [REDACTED] around 12pm on Sat. Would it be OK if [REDACTED] hung out with you guys on Sat afternoon/night (in the event you guys decide to spend the night) and/or get a ride home? Happy to book an adjoining room so the boys could hang out together. And no pressure if it doesn't work out—we'll figure out something. :)
