Greetings to All,

I called NGS Power just now, and Tammy answered the Service extension. I told her we have been trying for weeks to reach Jared and I want him to call me today.

She apologized, said she would tell him to call me when he comes in this afternoon (he is out this morning at a funeral).

She says the generators are still, as far as she knows, on schedule to ship out on 5/31.

I reiterated that I want Jared to call me this afternoon when he gets into the office.

Kind regards, Daphne
