Good morning Brice,

Could you please sent the document in better quality/resolution or best to be able to work in .dwg or .dxf file?

Thank you for you for your support

Hello [REDACTED],

Thank you it's clear ; Our concern about the location is, as we don't know the site, may the existing location of the house is the best according the views and also according the weather conditions, or not...

Also the topographics plans are required to be able to start the preliminary studies and have a good comprehension of the site.

Best regards
