The below sounds fun to me from the little brochure you sent! ha! I would also like to rent bikes and go for a fun ride with you as our guide. :)

I agree with the below itinerary and I know we discussed the dinners already and they sounded super! xo

RIVER TRIPS

Float
Climb aboard our custom dory boat, complete with built-in wine cooler, and experience a float and fishing trip down special sections of the Roaring Fork River that most never get to see

I was doing some web browsing for dining and activities while in Aspen. I have our dinner places down to about 5 spots and will talk to Pat about which ones to book for which nights. As for activities...

Wednesday - you arrive around dinnertime - possibly go to JBar at Hotel Jerome (<http://www.eataspen.com/aspen/restaurants/1022/the-j-bar->) for dinner with boys, popular spot, casual, great burgers, after dinner go to park to throw football and get ice cream. Few other options as well

Thursday - get up, work out, possibly do beginner hike, Hunter's Glen or up Aspen mountain, about 2-3 hours, chum around town, pool, football training, dinner @ Cache Cache, Campo Di Fiori or Ellina

Friday - get up, work out, planned activity, football training, dinner at one of spots listed above

Saturday - possibly do longer hike where we pack lunches and out for longer portion of day, football training, dinner at Casa Tua (great spot).

Leave Sunday.

I noticed that The Little Nell (nicest hotel that I think you booked for someone) offers these different Summer Adventures that I believe are open to the public...take a peak...these would be expensive but probably enjoyable. We are open to anything. We don't need guides for hikes as we can do that ourselves. In addition, we could rent bikes on our own and ride to Woody Creek Tavern which is a popular bike ride that ends at a fun little Tavern. We can also consider the jeep rides, a fishing type float as per this brochure. These same type of things are offered through other companies as well.
