I called Danielle to ask if she sent the invoice in to Medicare...Priority Private Care does not accept Medicare...and since the don't accept Medicare unfortunately the secondary insurance (United Health Care) will not pay anything either...secondary insurance only pay what Medicare won't...but since Priority Private Care doesn't accept Medicare, Jeffrey gets no insurance coverage benefit. If you want to speak with Danielle about it yourself, you can call her a the number below.

Do they send invoice to insurance company or we need no submit?
Thank you,
Bella

Dear Jeffrey,

Thank you for choosing Priority Private Care as your medical provider.

Attached you will find an invoice for the services rendered during your recent medical visit. We have billed this to your credit card on file.

We appreciate your business and look forward to helping you with any of your healthcare needs. Feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Danielle Baskerville
