Intermediary Disclosure. Amex assists you in finding travel suppliers and making arrangements that meet your travel needs. Amex uses a variety of factors in identifying travel suppliers to you and recommending specific itineraries. In this role, we are acting as an intermediary. We want you to be aware that certain suppliers pay us commissions as well as incentives for reaching you. From time to time we may also provide incentives to our travel counselors. Certain suppliers may also provide compensation for the administrative services that we perform for them, such as granting them access to our marketing channels, participating in our loyalty programs, or supporting our technology initiatives. In addition, we receive compensation from suppliers when customers use travel products and services that we offer. We also receive compensation from American Express products to pay for supplier products and services. From time to time we may enter into other business arrangements, including levels and types of compensation and incentives we receive, are subject to change. When recommending travel suppliers and itineraries, we may consider a number of factors, including supplier availability and your preferences. The recommendations we make are not binding on you and do not influence the suppliers we identify and the itineraries we recommend.
