Please be advised that the management of AYH is replacing the transformer for the property. The transformer was damaged last year in the hurricanes. While they do this, the power has to be off as well as the generator which means our office will be without power or back up generator. This switch will be done from 7AM to noon next Wednesday. As such, the office will not be opened until 11:30AM on Wednesday, October 3, 2018.

Thank you.

With warm regards,
