How's it going, Jeffrey? Have you had the minimally-invasive surgery? Would you like to Skype this weekend? Thanks again for the Robert Kuhn re-connection. I have an idea about writing up a piece for The New Yorker or Atlantic on "Intelligence, Talent, & Creativity" - been doing that seminar every year in our Music Mind & Brain course - Howard Gardner used to be my Guest Prof for that one. Since then, there has been a bit of research published in peer-reviewed neuroscience journals on music improvisationxxx
