She told me Jeffrey wanted to cancel. I told her we were within cancellation policy, but I would try. I called AMex and tried to cancel...we were jumping through hoops and then I received [REDACTED] email response: 'he changed his mind' I was under the impression he changed his mind and was NO LONGER cancelling. So I told the agent (who was not Natasha, as she was on vacation) we no longer needed to cancel, because Jeffrey changed his mind and the girls would take the trip. It is apparent now that when [REDACTED] said he changed his mind, she meant 'yes we were going to go but now he changed his mind and doesn't want us to'...I read it as we will now go on the trip and did not cancel. What can I tell you. It was miscommunication. I'll send you the original email.
