Hi Lesley,
Hope you guys are well! How are things with Ike and [REDACTED]? How is JE?

I was just reaching out because we finally made the move to [REDACTED] and I am just now beginning my search for a new job closer to home. I remembered you mentioned you would keep me in mind if you heard of anything :)

I've reached out to a few recruiters who specialize in the [REDACTED] areas but nothing has really jumped out yet - I was hoping to find something in the financial sector as their hours work better for dropping off and picking up from daycare. Anyway, if you are Ike know/hear of anything please do pass it along as it's hard to navigate looking for a job outside of NYC (I'm not familiar with how other areas work!).

On another note, we've been adjusting to suburban life and as soon as we moved, [REDACTED] started walking! It's so amazing how much happier he is with more room to cruise around. I've attached a photo of our little guy

Hope to hear from you soon and thanks again for any tips! Please tell everyone I said hello!

Hi Lesley! Thanks so much! We are definitely looking forward to having space and trees! We actually just bought a house upstate as well since we are moving in with my husband's ailing mother in [REDACTED] - we needed a space of our own for the weekends!
Thank you for the tip and and for keeping me in mind. I was actually thinking it would be good to send my resume to some recruiters as well!
Good to have it out there in case the perfect opportunity arises.

Take care and thank you again! Hope you and the family have a wonderful new year!

Hi [REDACTED]. So. Nice to hear from you !

I have been looking at your adorable family pics from time to time on social media! Your little [REDACTED] is precious! I think you will enjoy being in the burbs with your family. It's nice to have space! I will certainly keep you in mind if I hear of anything out this way. If I were you I would get in with a head hunter in this area if you really want to be here! Word of mouth is always best but good to have your name in with someone looking for you also. We are all doing well here. Enjoying the season for sure. Take care! Lesley

I just started a new job, which I like but I am a bit worried about the commute and having [REDACTED] in daycare for 12 hours a day. I thought I should start putting feelers out there in case there are any good opportunities in the market. I remember you mentioned a friend was looking for an assistant a couple years ago so was hoping if anything like that came up again, maybe you could consider passing my resume along. Right now I'm working as an
