We have 5 recipients in Europe. (2 in Paris, 1 in Geneva, 1 in London, 1 in Moscow) I think it would be best to have a contact in Europe. Can we have the representative in Europe ship to each individual person? the 2 in Paris will go to the same address.

H [REDACTED] Rich -
Great! Sounds like you are on top of things! ☺

I've attached our multi-ship template which our support team will use to manually review your order. If you're able to fill this out - great! If you'd like to email me each one separately, that's fine as well and I'll complete the spreadsheet.

Regarding Apple Watch & Europe - unfortunately we do not carry models which are compatible with carriers in Europe. Rich is correct that there are different models for carriers in the United States & Canada versus EMEA. Also, we do not ship overseas.

If you'd like, I can look into connecting you to business teams in other countries where there are Apple Stores - let me know if you'd like my assistance there.

Any other questions, please let me know!

Best Wishes,

Hello Martin and thanks for checking in. I will be placing some orders with you very soon. I sent the email out just this morning to our recipients. I will send you each order separately along with the address to send to.

Question- we do have a few watches to be shipped to Europe. Can you ship overseas? Does the watch need to be purchased over there maybe?

Hi Rich & [REDACTED]
Thanks for [REDACTED] time to chat earlier.

Attached you will find a spreadsheet which outlines the Apple Watches we offer.

There is one sheet for Aluminum Watches and another for Stainless Steel. The third sheet provides photos of each watch.

Let me know if you have any other questions.

Talk soon!
