Hey, J.

Till 5.40 pm. I have to be at the movies in Lincoln center at 6 pm.

Almost free on Friday (if you don't keep Shabbat;)

Hello, Jeffrey

Hope everything is fine and you had an amazing New Year Eve celebration :)

As I mentioned before, I'm producing a short Jewish movie. The script is based on a story by my friend Alexander Dobrovinsky (https://ru.wikipedia.org/wiki/Добровинский,_Александр_Андреевич, <https://dobrovinsky.com>). The movie will be presented at the Opening of the Babyn Jar Holocaust Memorial Center in 2023 (<http://babynyar.org>). We also want to participate in all main Jewish and short-movie festivals before that. Technically, the film will be ready by the end of 2019/ first half of 2020. At this stage I have to finish the research to get the specific details of Jewish immigration in the begining of the 20th century. As I know, YIVO can easily provide this information, so I would be more than thankful if you could introduce me to someone, who could help me and work with me in the archives.

The story is attached.

I'll be in NY January 9-16 for New York Jewish Film Festival. Will be glad to meet up.

Best Regards,
Sasha
