I can take a look, but my guess is that there isn't enough storage on the watch to handle your full contact list.

Can you open Contacts on your Mac and make a group and add to it the minimum contacts you'd want on your watch? I think we can custom sync only that list.

It did work when I first started using it. So something is up. Can you have a look tomorrow when you are at the house for me please? ◆. ██████
