Hello Jake! Yes, I have received everything! You have been brilliant and I greatly appreciate all. The 2 people we were to send to St. Maarten are no longer available to travel so we won't be able to purchase the trip. Also, re the Miami-Paris-NY trip, my boss decided to use points and purchased the ticket on AF. So this time around, I'm afraid we won't need your service, but your pricing is extremely good. My boss has asked me to use you when we have another flight we need biz or first class seats for. Thanks again, [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]
Were you able to review the quotes I sent you recently? I have checked dozens of flight options, airline by airline, connection by connection, that fit Your requirements and the flights I provided you with are definitely the best available!
The great discounted prices that we offer come from private contracts with all major airlines and in most cases cannot be found anywhere else!

Let me know if you like the look of any of these options or if you would like me to make any adjustments to tailor fit this trip for you!
If you are ready to book, please send me the full names of all the passengers traveling exactly as they appear on the passports along with your dates of birth. This way I can reserve your seats to ensure we don't lose them and we can get this booked today!

Thank you,
Jake Brown
