It is not a burden. It is a pleasure and it allows me to relive coaching a bit. I know what you mean about Brunswick and GCDS. If you need some help at GCDS I can help there. I know lots of legacy and two guys at my office have kids there and went when they were young. I know some huge donors there. I think we can get that done. Brunswick I am not sure but my bet is I know a few that could help. All else I am confident your boys will be successful no matter what school they attend.

New Canaan would love the boys once [REDACTED] graduates. I am sure the boys can get the academic rigor and athletics the desire up here. And the good news they know all the athletes already.

I am so sorry to burden you with this task at this tough time. I knew you would use discretion and that is why I asked you. There are other sports that they play that the coaches would not keep this confidential. Anything you can provide is wonderful. We are thankful. I am sure that we have no hope of Brunswick or GCDS b/c we are not pedigreed as some but I have to take a shot.

We are late in everything b/c as I told you we were counting on the lottery for the program that [REDACTED] is on but one got accepted by lottery and one is waitlisted. I haven't told the boys b/c they will be devastated.

Thank you always.

Last weekend was tough but I did get a lot more progress.

I want to get you a product by next week after this weekend of work.
