Hello Les,

Thank you so much for this. It looks like the trains are running again on sunday!
Just the tickets are very expensive which I didnt anticipate. There is only business left on the Saturday morning outward journey which gets in at 11.17am, and then it doesnt allow me to book the return in standard. I tried to book it as two separate trips to see if it would work out cheaper but it only saved about 20 pounds.

I have an appointment between 6pm and 7pm London time but will be back on line after that!

xx

Eurostar just told me that all trains on Sunday have been cancelled by the french authorities due to an old WWII bomb being found!!
I have cleared my schedule so I am flexible. There are some trains on Saturday but only in the afternoon, and there are trains on Monday to get back if I needed.
I wonder what time the yellow socks stop their protests. Anyway, its as you wish and what works best for both of you.

Love love love
