Subject: Joes jeans

Morning! I did pop in to Bloomies to look at Joes jeans. They had an athletic fit which was loose in the thighs but tapered at the ankle that I think might be good for you. I don't remember what they called them but I can search today. They didn't have your size and I figure more color options available on line. But I liked them. They have every good pair of jean brand and sooooo many people standing around ready to help you. Too many. The men's dept doesn't have as many customers as the ladies and it was overkill. I felt 'stalked' and wanted out of there. Especially when the older lady came to me with a face full of white facial hair ... bless her heart but she needs a lighted mirror and a razor. Or some electrolysis. Yikes. (And really unattractive.). Anyway, back to the jeans. I can check Zappos, bloomies, Nordstrom's etc ... a place that ships free and returns are free.
