Fantastic! Thank you for this. Happy to organize car pick up. I'll communicate with all today on this.

Hi [REDACTED]

Jeffrey asked to meet Gregory Chaitin at about 12:00 noon on Saturday, with an 11:00am pickup at the Holiday Inn in Mt Kisco NY 10549. Greg agreed. Jeffrey asked if you could arrange car/limo from the Holiday Inn and back. Again, pickup at 11:00am Saturday morning.

Greg's Room is 144, cell phone [REDACTED] His wife (a philosopher) and 18-month old toddler will also come.

I'll send an email to Greg introducing you.

For an introduction to Greg, Wikipedia gives the technical / math stuff. Greg has a documentary about himself - <https://www.amazon.com/Gregory-Chaitin-Against-Method/dp/B07MGSJLXF>

'People need to be inspired. You have to get the energy to get creation from somewhere. You can have sexual energy; it can be from thinking about transcendental, spiritual things, whatever it is. It can be just because you're crazy. William Blake created this whole world in his poetry and his wife said his feet never touched the ground. He was always somewhere else.'

Jeffrey said for me to come at 11:00 am, so we'll have about an hour before Greg arrives. CTT Producer./Director Peter Getzels will also come.

Thanks and best,

Robert

Hi: I've confirmed with Chaitin - and Jeffrey - that on Saturday, Chaitin will depart his hotel Holiday Inn around 3 pm. I need to confirm which Holiday Inn, but I assume in Manhattan. He will bring his wife, who is a philosopher, and their 18-month old toddler. Once we get a specific time, I will plan to come earlier, perhaps 30-45, so Jeffrey and I can deal with other matters (or I can stay after, whichever is better for Jeffrey). Peter Getzels will come as well.

More when I know.

Thanks

Robert

all sounds excellent!
I will HOLD Sat. late morning to mid afternoon...and will cross fingers Greg can make it...we will be able to accommodate!

Look forward to hearing back from you in a couple of days.

Hi [REDACTED]

Sure, Saturday works - late morning to mid afternoon best, can be flexible.

However, I am trying to see if/when Gregory Chaitin (mathematician, contributor to our "Breakthroughs" series) can come, as Jeffrey requests. If so, let's see what time works for Greg (he lives in Brazil and is coming to attend a conference). If Greg can make it, I can come a little earlier to discuss private matters with Jeffrey. If Greg cannot make it Saturday, then the above times for me.

May take a few days... Greg lives in Brazil, and, well, he is a mathematician.....

Best regards,
Robert

Hello Robert. Hope you are well. Jeffrey says you will come see him at his home in New York on Saturday April 6th...what time is good for you?

Jeffrey's home address (as a reminder!) is:

9 East 71st Street between 5th and Madison

Let me know!

Thanks,
