Hi Jeffrey,

Kindly see attached rendering illustrating the developments per our call the other day.

Notes:

Minimized bolster on front edge of bottom cushion

Taper bottom cushion “bucket like”

Added slight recline to back cushion

Shorten and widen headrest

We devised a new idea for the arm rests for a more seamless transition into the back rest. The two images attached show the arm rest in the up and down position.

We encourage your feedback on the styling so we can keep moving forward. If you are available for another call today please let us know what time is best.

Thank you.
