Thank you lesley for all the trouble.
I will arm it now, and you will let me know before when you want it disarmed.

Hi Nili...your packages are in your apartment. We had to order batteries for your key pad, but we were able to get in with the help of a locksmith. All good for now. We were not able to exterminate the apartment however because the exterminator had to leave before we were able to get the door open. Just keeping you up to date. When the new batteries arrive I will let you know. Take care, Lesley

Hi Les,
We brought up 24 packages in total.
