CORE: travels

Retro NYC: Hip, cool modern is easy to come by in Manhattan, especially downtown. But chic, in Midtown? Now there is an amazing new option.

L'Avenue, one of our favorite Parisian hangouts, is now open for lunch and dinner on the eighth floor of Saks Fifth Avenue with a louche after-hours lounge that looks more like Gstaad or St. Moritz than Manhattan.

Up for a farther flung adventure? Last week's opening of the stylish—very stylish—510 room TWA Hotel at the recently revamped and historic JFK terminal that closed some 18 years ago is not to be missed. With a nod to its original modernist design by Eero Saarinen the hotel rooms have spiffy retro furnishings, even rotary dial phones. Don't forget to make a reservation at the restaurant by Jean Georges Vongerichten there.
