Hi Lesley,
Thank you so much for all of these!

Yes they can ask at the airline but usually when you buy a ticket there is an option/question that asks if you have something fragile in your carry on but if no its ok.

As I mentioned, they will be staying with me in New York for a few days so we fly in New York on June 17th. They need to be home by June 23rd which, I believe, means they would have to fly back on June 21?

P.S. noted about a hotel and I will look into this. Thank you!

I will ask about bringing fragile instruments I have no idea. They may need to call the airline and tell them. The airline could possibly tell them what to do directly. If it costs extra I'm sure Jeffrey would reimburse. I sent you the record locator for their flights. It will remain the same. The outbound flight does not need to change.

Do you want your parents to fly directly home after reaching NY or are they spending the night in NY? I think not but I'd rather ask now!

Hi Lesley,

Thank you so much but I am not sure if you saw my email about the mistake about LA/ NY.

My return flight to NY will be with my parents on June 17th...

Also would be possible to add to my parents travel tickets that they are bringing fragile music instrument in their carry on? or is it ok to bring on the board without a warning? They are bringing an interment for Jeffrey from Mongolia, he wanted one. And it's just occurred to me that there are might be some restrictions or additional steps in order to take it as carry-on.

Lesley, I am so sorry for all of these headache I am giving you and the mistake. Let me know if I can help you to deal with this. I would have tried to buy it all on my own but Jeffrey said to do it through you.

In terms of a hotel in Moscow, I am sure my parents can book and bring a receipt with them if it's easier. I also can book a hotel in LA myself if I have an account I can use or maybe my Amex card with JE's permission? I can follow up with him too on that.

Let me know,
Thank you!
Best,
