Sorry Lesley just called them.
So the place where they have to pick [redacted] passport opens at 9 am so I think it will be very risky to fly that day, the timing is too tight. So let's do as you offered. Fly on Monday morning from [redacted] to [redacted], stay overnight in there in a hotel (something close to the airport) and fly from [redacted] to la on Tuesday early morning.

Thank you!

Hi Lesley,

Got it. Let me call my parents it's 4:20 am there but I will try to phone in 30-40 min and see what time they can pick up the passport otherwise we have to delay the flight for a day

Amex rep response:
What time they need to pick up passport in the city?

The thing is, traffic in [redacted] that time will be horrible, so to make 2:25pm departure, they will have to be at the airport 2-3 hours prior to departure, at 11:25a-12:25pm. So, depends what time they are picking up passports, I assume it is at the US Embassy, so it is in the city center.

Distance from city to [redacted] airport is only 22 miles, but it takes at least one hour to get there.

No later flights from [redacted].

Hi Lesley,
Ok...that is pity but she is right. Let's get a ticket flying on Sunday from [redacted] to [redacted] so that they stay overnight there and fly from [redacted] to LA on Monday on the latest connecting flight at 2:35 pm. I think should be enough time to go into a city and pick up [redacted] passport, right?

Thanks.
I received the below from my Amex agent. Please see below and advise. Maybe beat to spend night in [redacted]. ...

Direct flight from [redacted] to LA is at 12:00, no way they will have enough time in [redacted] to go to the city. Flight from [redacted] arrives to different airport in [redacted]. Latest connecting time from [redacted] to LA is at 2:35pm, I still think it is not enough time, they will have to stay over night in [redacted], please advise (later than 2:35pm will be flight via China, I don't think they want to go back to Asia and fly to US, they might need Chinese transit visa).
