Hi [REDACTED]

My friend is amazing, she helped to write day-by-day what we are going to do! :) Now I got a clearer idea how things work.

So she said that for most strategically good locations would be Hollywood or West Hollywood

For hotels it would be best options as:

June 11- Stay in Hollywood

June 12th - Loews Coronado Bay Resort, Coronado, San Diego

June 13th-17th- hotel in Hollywood

- 1. Dream Hollywood
- 2. Andaz West Hollywood-a concept by Hyatt
- 3. Kimpton Everly Hotel
- 4. Loews Hollywood Hotel
- 5. Mondrian Los Angeles in West Hollywood
- 6. The Standard, Hollywood

Also [REDACTED] we will probably rent a car for a day on June 12th to drive to San Diego I asked my dad to bring his driver license (I have my driver license too but I haven't practiced for years so I just can sit in the front). Of course he is nervous but my friend said that driving on highway should be easy for him.

Anyway the expenses for renting car, uber service to drive around the city, food/restaurant and all these travel expenses, should I use my amex gold card i use for medical?

I think that way will be easier than bothering you. I asked Jeffrey If i should use my own money he gives me monthly he said NO and that the entire trip is his treat (he is soooo kind!) but I am not sure how this is going to work. Plus, I would probably need to have some cash on me just in case, which I guess I can just use from my own and then ask Bella for reimbursement.

So here is the all for know. Let me know what you think and if you have any questions about hotels and etc, [REDACTED]
Thank you very much [REDACTED]

Best,
