

Mary, I have to say I am a bit annoyed the call of the town. I wish they would have just said Halloween will be Nov 7th. I think now no one really knows what to do. I think that Oak, Church, Green, South and Main are all safe. I will be at my house with pumpkin and candy for anyone who comes by. I hope others also come. Going to town hall for candy does not sound all that fun.