Subject: Re: Travel lists for JE

Thank you Karyna

Received them, will print and read through tomorrow. And good idea to always circulate any changes between all of us :)))

Hello Ladies,

I am sending you the travel checklists, that I currently have for JE, so that we all can have the same things. There may be many changes with time, and it is very important, that we notify each other, when something gets changed, so that we all have the same updated information. So please let's work as a team:)

Thank you.
