Subject: Reimbursements

Hi Bella

I paid $400 from my personal chase account to t=e movers that we used last week in 301.
[REDACTED] did they by any=chance email you a receipt?

Also,
I gav= Karyna $300 in cash to take to LSJ so that she would have cash on her as =E has told her always to carry $500 And I spent $220 on an errand for JE, something that Karyna had to tak= to the island with her.
These 2nd 2 amounts were from money tha= I had from JE black bag as he always tells me to take $500.

Can you reimburse the 400 into my chase account.
C=n I come and collect the 500 from you. It would be easier to put it into m= account and I could just draw it out but it doesnt feel correct as it is =technically not mine, so I will come down and fetch it. I want to have it b= the time he gets back as I will be in trouble again if I dont keep it on =e.

Thank you
