Hey [REDACTED],

How has your week been? I haven't heard from you so hopefully you've been out seeing New York City. Are you going to be away this weekend?

I'm doing well. My job is a lot of fun and I've been in Manhattan for almost all of this week. I'll be back in Long Island this next week though.

Hope all is well and I hope we get a chance to get together again before you flight back home.

Jeremy
