I'm not going to forget about anything either. I had a w=nderful time with you and I'm glad that you are my friend. I think so much of you and how sweet, kind and special you are. It =as not easy for me to write what I did but I knew it was necessary. I miss=you too and what is so funny is that we didn't really know each other =hat long or that well. It was a special time and I look forward to the tho=ght that we might be able to meet again next Summer. Until then, I look fo=ward to more emails and maybe even a Skype. But it is important to say tha= we have to be just friends, okay.

Talk to you soon,

Hi Jeremy!

I k=ow our situation now probably seems ridiculous, but you are so wrong if yo= think I'll forget about everything. Yes, we know each other for a sho=t time, but you will always be a man to me, not just a friend, and I know =whatever happens I will keep those time in my memory, cause I feel like it =as something very special to me. You may say I'm a child still, but I =now what I say. Of course, I will have fun being here as well as you will =njoy your time, won't you? And it's ok. I'm gonna come to NY i= Jul or Aug and to stay, it probably would be the last chance to do it, ca=se if I graduate my university I'd hardly be able to come to US, that&=39;s why I wanna try it this summer. I don't gonna ask you to wait for=me, but Jeremy, I just wanna know, if all this means nothing to you - plea=e, tell me.

I miss you, Jeremy

P.S. a prayer for me...it's so pathetically!)

Hi █████,

Also, I want to write to you about you and me and where I'd like fo= our friendship to go. When we met it was great and I have had such a wond=rful time getting to know you. But being that we are so far apart and have=such a difference in age I know that things will eventually change. You st=ll have a lot of experience to go through and I want to encourage you to g= out and have a lot of fun. We will always be friends and I hope we can co=ntinue talking but I want you to enjoy University life and all (not that yo= aren't already!) :) I look forward to hearing from you again an=, again, I'm so glad we met and I'm really glad you are my friend.=br>

Talk to you soon,
Jeremy

Hello lovely [REDACTED],

Yes, I had a good time. I ate some food at a friends house and then went to the park and played soccer with a group of guys for a couple of hours.

What do you eat when you go home? What's your favorite 'home food'?

Hahaha. I don't clean my apartment enough which is why it has taken me so long. :) I started to clean it before, when we were talking, but I didn't get it all done. Now I'm finished, THANK YOU GOD!! :D

7 hours later than NY, okay, so maybe some morning when you are free and I can stay up late and we can talk on Skype. I usually get home around 5pm, which I think is 12am for you (0:00).

Have fun in your classes! Study hard. I miss you too...hope to skype with you soon!

(nice kisses!!)

Hi Jeremy!)

I've forgotten - it's The Labor Day in US tomorrow, wish you to have a fun time!

My family is good, thank you. I'm happy to see my parents, to talk to them after a long time... and home food - oh my God, it's so tasty!!!)...except one thing - I'm eating chocolate ice cream now and it's much worse than... you know what)

It's good at home, but anyway I want back to NY so much!!!

You can also join <www.vkontakte.ru <http://www.vkontakte.ru>> if you want, it's similar to facebook, there some photos of me too.

How often do you clean your apartment? It's not the first time you write me about it, you must be very neat I guess:))

We can talk by skype any evening, what time do you usually come back home? It's 1.10 am in Minsk now, 7 hours later than in NY. I'll go to bed soon, tomorrow I should go for my classes.

Have a good time tomorrow!

Kiss you...muah muah mmmuaah! bye...

Hello [REDACTED]!! :=

I'm glad to hear from you too and I'm glad that your flight went well.

I slept in late today too, it was nice to get some rest. How is your family? Tell your cat that I say 'hello' back. It really is sad that we didn't get any photographs together. I do have a lot of pictures on Facebook. If you do a search for me under the name Jeremy Stiffler, you will see a picture of me on my parents boat looking at the sunset while I'm lying down.

It has been nice today but it started raining a little bit in the evening. I will be singing in my church choir tomorrow and then will come home and try to get my apartment cleaned. It is such a mess. I need a maid!! :)

On Monday we have a National holiday so I don't have to go to work.=I'll be playing some soccer with some friends and maybe go to a concert. The most important thing is that I get some of my school work done. I have waited too long to get the work done and now I think it is time to get it done.

Can you also send me some pictures? We should also Skype some time. Let me know when you can. By the way, what is the time difference from New York and where you live?

My flight was perfectly good, but I was so tired when I came home and was sleeping all the day) Everything is so different here, I'm dreaming about next summer already...

I'm waiting for your pictures! It's a pity we have no any photos together. Do you have a lot of pictures on facebook?

My cat is lying near me and says Hello to you!)

It's so rainy here today, and how is your weather? What plans for the weekend?

Hey [REDACTED],

I wanted to see how the flight went. I hope it was uneventful. :)

It was really hard driving by the airport last night knowing that you could be taking off at any minute. I'm going to send you some pictures of me when I get home and would love it if you could send me pictures of you as well.

Get some rest, and I hope we can talk soon!

Jeremy
