Subject: LSJ items for plane

I have started packing the black luggage bag that came back from Paris with i=ems for the plane to LSJ. I have put it downstairs in the corridor where we=always used to collect the items going on the trips. I think it gets too cr=zy in oval room if we start putting the things there. Also be sure if you p=t anything there to go you mark location and let us all know so that the pe=son travelling with JE can make sure it gets safely to the other end.

Let me know if you need me to show you location in basement where we collect= Thank you :))))
